Details:

Fifteen hectares (150,296 m²) in Bijagua de Upala, about 2 km from the village at roughly 900 meters above sea level.

About 10 hectares are forest. The remaining land is open, so you have both a wooded area and room to use the rest of the property. The terrain is gently rolling, with a good part of it flat. The land has a clear view to the north.

Aqueduct water from Bijagua and ICE electricity are available. The property is surveyed.

It suits a buyer looking for privacy, nature and a lot of land in one piece.

Price: US$500,000
